LITTLE SON

Of Mr. and Mrs. Hancock Higgins Dead.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hancock Higgins, after an illness of four weeks, passed away last Tuesday night. The cause of his death was brain and bowel troubles. Two weeks ago his life was despaired of but he rallied and it was hoped that he might recover, but a few days since he became worse and hope was abandoned by his doting parents.

The little fellow was a beautiful and bright child of only 18 months and bore his father's name. The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances.

Condition Much Improved.

The many friends of Mrs. Phil Berry, who has been under treatment in a Nashville sanitarium for seven weeks, will learn with pleasure that she is about well. Her son, R. E. Berry, went over to Nashville this morning and will return with his mother tonight.

Good to Remember!

FAMILY REUNION

Of Descendants of Newton and Cassandra Allen.

A reunion of the descendants of Newton Allen was held yesterday in the large shady grove near Concord church, two miles North of the city. At the noon hour dinner was spread and the day was spent most pleasantly by a large number of the survivors of one of the first settlers of Kentucky, who was, in his day, a prominent citizen of the county.

Newton Allen was a Virginian by birth, but ran away from his parents when a small boy and came to Kentucky and located. Most of his lifetime was spent in the Northern part of this county, where he died about 42 years ago. His wife was Cassandra Allen, who died about six years ago at the advanced age of 93 years. To Mr. and Mrs. Allen were born six children, all girls, and four of whom still survive and were present at the reunion yesterday. The children still living and referred to are Mrs. Fidella Meacham and Mrs. Mary Royalty, of this city; Mrs. Maggie Lacy, who lives near Concord, where the reunion was held, and Mrs. Sue Underwood, of Sinking Fork. The deceased daughters, who died several years ago, were Mrs. John Mitchell and Mrs. George Tichenor, both of whom resided in this county. During the lifetime of Mr. Allen he was for a number of years jailer of the county, holding that position at the time of his death.

The promoters of the reunion held yesterday were Misses Eva and Helen Royalty and Mr. R. F. West, grandchildren of Newton and Cassandra Allen. Those from this city who attended went out in Brame's large wagonette and returned late in the afternoon. The descendants number nearly a hundred and a large number of them were present, some from a distance.

ALMOST A MIRACLE.

Fearful Experience of Mr. and Mrs. Binns at Acme Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Binns had a narrow escape from death at the Acme Mills Monday night, while descending the passenger elevator from the fourth floor. The elevator is a moving ladder contrivance, made of successive steps fastened to belting that passes over and around wheels at the top and bottom of the mill. It passes through holes in the several floors large enough for one to ride up or down on the steps, holding to hand grips on the belting, between the steps. Mr. Binns is the night miller and goes off duty at 12 o'clock. Mrs. Binns (formerly Miss Annie Nance and a bride of a few months) had gone to the mill to wait for him. They attempted to descend the elevator both on the same step. The step broke near the fourth floor and Mrs. Binns, not having hold of the grip, fell to the next step below, three or four feet, and was thrown from the step to the next floor. Mr. Binns held on by one hand until he could get off at the landing. Mrs. Binns sustained painful but not serious bruises, her worst injury being a sprained ankle. No bones were broken. Mr. Binns was unhurt. The elevator is the height of five stories of the mill. Mrs. Binns fell about 25 feet but the fall was broken by the step below. The elevator shaft is not large enough to admit of the passage of a falling body, or she would have been dashed to death on the concrete floor 50 feet below.

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.
